

THERE'S A DRAGON IN YOUR BOOK

by Tom Fletcher

There's a little dragon in your book. She's oh-so cute but watch out for her fiery sneezes.

Your little one will love stroking, poking and flapping the book to make magic happen as they turn the pages.

Sensory Table

Try making a sensory table for your little one using a combination of differently textured household items, materials and foods.

They will enjoy exploring the difference, and you can talk to them about how each item feels using words for textures like 'sticky' and 'crunchy'.

Read to a pet or cuddly toy.

One of the most enjoyable ways of preparing for story time is by finding a cosy, comfortable place for you and your child to be together. If you have a family pet or your child has a favourite cuddly toy, then they can snuggle in and join you too.

One Finger, One Thumb, Keep Moving

One finger, one thumb, keep moving,
one finger, one thumb, keep moving,
one finger, one thumb, keep moving,
we'll all be merry and bright.

One finger, one thumb, one arm,
keep moving,
(repeat as above).

One finger, one thumb, one arm, one leg,
keep moving, (repeat as before).

One finger, one thumb, one arm, one leg,
one nod of the head, keep moving,
one finger, one thumb, one arm, one leg,
one nod of the head, keep moving,
one finger, one thumb, one arm, one leg,
one nod of the head, keep moving,
we'll all be merry and bright.
