

WHEN I GROW UP - FARMER

by Clare Hibbert and Mike Byrne

This is an information book all about being a farmer.

You can read this book in any order. Use the contents page to let your child choose which part they want to read first.

Fun with Boxes

Make a tractor from a box and a steering wheel from a paper plate or piece of cardboard. Let your child sit inside and pretend to be driving.

Chat as you play together. What animals will you see on your way?

Pretend Play

Children love role play! Try pretending to be different animals and exploring what they might say or do. It is a great way to encourage your child to take the lead and let their imagination run...wild!

When you're playing with your little one make the noises of the animals that you'd like them to name - the more animated you are, the better. You could also try and move like the animal you're pretending to be.

Riding Along on my Big Red Tractor

*Riding along on my big red tractor.
Riding along on my big red tractor.
Riding along on my big red tractor,
bringing in the hay. Hey!*

Can your child think of any more colours for the tractor?
